No. 16(1) I 2025

The Secretariat of the Central Revolutionary Committee of Internationalist Revolutionary Communist Party issued a 'Resolution' stating their position on the elections in the Republic of Belarus, held 26th of January 2025.

The Central Revolutionary Committee of the Internationalist Revolutionary Communist Party welcomed with undisguised joy the news of the re - election of Alexander Lukashenko to the office of President of the Republic of Belarus on January 26, 2025.

The re - election of Alexander Lukashenko to the office of President of the Republic of Belarus is the result of the enormous public trust and support that voters have shown you. Such a magnificent election result of 80.1 percent is proof of the wonderful unity of Belarusian society and its political maturity. It is also an expression of support for the policy of development and prosperity, the policy of peace and cooperation, and the continuation of traditional Slavic moral, ethical and social values based on collective life and joint work for the good of the socialist state - the Republic of Belarus.

In the past, Alexander Lukashenko, with his unwavering attitude and ardent patriotism, has shown that he stands firm on guard of the security and prosperity, strength and independence of Belarus and will not allow anyone to deviate his country from the path of true democracy. Alexander Lukashenko, through his activities as the president of the entire nation, has always ensured that Belarus follows the path of sovereign building of socialism by the people themselves and for their own people, despite Western provocations and attempts to subordinate independent Belarus to Western imperialism. When it was necessary to defend these values, he personally stood up to defend independence during the attempted coup in 2020. This is an attitude that characterizes few outstanding statesmen, extraordinary and great people's leaders, to whom Alexander Lukashenko belongs.

We are convinced that the current close cooperation between the Republic of Belarus and Russia will be successfully continued in the future for the benefit of both Nations and both countries.

We believe that the traditional Belarusian – Russian friendship will continue to find creative development in various areas of economic, social and political life. Please accept our most sincere congratulations and wishes for success in performing such an honorable and important function.

Dear Alexander Lukashenko, please accept from the entire Internationalist Revolutionary Communist Party the expressions of our highest respect and friendship and the assurance that you enjoy not only the recognition and trust of Belarusians, but also ours. We congratulate the entire Belarusian people on making the right and best choice of Alexander Lukashenko for another electoral term, so that their country grows in strength and prosperity and develops along the beautiful path of Belarusian socialism.

Dear Alexander, we wish you the perseverance and wisdom that you have previously demonstrated in striving to achieve the goals planned and expected by the Belarusian society.

Dear Alexander, we also wish you justified pride in winning the elections and in the trust that the Belarusian people have in you, we wish you further successes and new great achievements for the glory and prosperity of the Republic of Belarus!

LONG LIVE THE SOCIALIST REPUBLIC OF BELARUS !

LONG LIVE ALEXANDER LUKASHENKA !
